24/7 Chat Reference Service now available!

The Shapiro Library is excited to announce our new 24/7 Chat With a Librarian service available NOW!

SNHU Students, Staff, & Faculty can access this service from the link above or from the “Ask a Librarian” box on the top right of every page on our Library Website.

SNHU Librarians are online during reference hours with support after hours from academic librarians around the country. This means you can chat with a professional librarian 24/7 for assistance with your research.
