Library on Demand– Books and Articles to Your Door!!

It is Shapiro Library’s delight to deliver the books and articles you need for your research and collegial needs to your home.

ALL Students, staff, and faculty can use our Interlibrary Loan, and book delivery service to access these services.

Please note this does not include course required textbooks.

Academic Archive at Shapiro Library

The Shapiro Library has an archive of student work!

Academic Archive

The archive collects student thesis work completed at SNHU.

For information about how to get your students’ work entered into the archive contact Chris Cooper (c.cooper@snhu.edu)

Featured Guides

Getting Started with Research @ Shapiro Library

This guide will help students understand information, choose a topic, develop a research question, find books and articles, evaluate sources, and more!

COCE Staff & Faculty Guide to Library Resources

This guide will help staff and faculty to understand the best practices of the use of library resources in online courses, navigate copyright, find library resources, and more.

Shapiro Library on SNHUconnect!

Shapiro Library offers assistance to students on SNHUconnect as the Shapiro Library Guru persona AND Shapiro Library Group.

To encourage community and scholarly activity, librarians are on SNHUconnect every day to guide students to resources including the Shapiro Library reference service for in-depth research help.

Follow Us Today!

Newsletter Access: Delivery and Archive

This newsletter is available every other Wednesday, and is no longer being sent into your direct email account. It will still be accessible three different ways!

You will be able to access it:

Through a link in the COCE bi-weekly update in your email,

In announcements in the mySNHU portal,

In the Library Newsletter Archive.

If you have questions, requests, or corrections, contact
Mary Keany (eLearning Librarian/ COCE Liaison)
m.zickafoose@snhu.edu