Books, Books, and More Books

Our Tech Services staff has been busy: More than 100,000 new e-books have recently been entered in the online library catalog!

Upcoming Library Workshop at the Mill

We're always looking for new ideas and opportunities to collaborate! Whether it's creating videos demonstrating equipment, writing documentation and collecting resources for students online, helping connect students with opportunities to access these technologies wherever they are, or anything else you can think of— we'd love to work with you to engage our online students!

Check out our Facebook page at https://www.facebook.com/shapiromakerspace ("SNHU Innovation Lab & Makerspace") for updates on the space and equipment available, video demonstrations, photos, and more!

Library Updates and FAQs

March 31, Noon—5pm—Long Island

What are some common questions the librarians receive and how can we best assist? What’s new in the library and how can we incorporate it? Join Brian as he discusses library updates and frequently asked questions on how to best serve students and faculty.
